

Fly Fishing Seminar

50th Annual

Spring Seminar

Sponsored by the

Alaska Fly Fishers

(A local non-profit organization)

Winner of the 1995 McKenzie Cup Award

An active member of the Fly Fishers International

"Cleaner Water - Brighter Streams"

5:30PM to 7:30PM at Cabela's - Conference Room

155 W 104th Avenue (off "C" Street) - Conference Room on the far left front of the building.

*On May 15th we meet outside - far west side of the Park Strip. (between "N" & "P" Streets)

Monday April 15th - Introduction to the Basic Gear of Fly Fishing & Leaders & Knots: Hands-on practice with AFF members

Monday April 22nd - Fly Tying Clinic Basic Fly Patterns & Knots II: Demonstration workshop with AFF members tying favorite patterns

Monday April 29th - Fly Fishing Opportunities in Southcentral Alaska: Panel discussion with Members of the Alaska Fly Fishers, owners of local fly fishing shops, and Area Fisheries Biologists from ADF&G

Monday May 13th - Casting Clinic: Demonstration and hands-on workshop outside. Casting clinic will be outside at a location to be announced

Space is limited. Pre-registration is highly recommended.

Pre-register by contacting Rich at 907/440-1830, or at our booth at the Sportsman Show, April 5th - 7th.

A handbook ($20 value) is included with each paid attendee and will be handed out at the Seminar.

Door Prize tickets are included each evening for paid seminar attendees and Senior Citizen attendees.

$55.00 General Public Individual*

$25.00 Current AFF Members

$60.00 General Public Family*

$15.00 per Individual Session

Senior Citizens and children under 16 with an adult attendee - No Charge

*One year membership, with our newsletter, is included with Seminar

FFi

FFi